

Communicating Knowledge and Information

Session 4.3 Highlights

Common Themes

- Significant effort, time and resources needed and is being invested however disproportionate to the amount of information generated
- Many audiences and many approaches – chose the right one
- New technology is playing a significant role
- Requires significant forethought and planning to move beyond traditional science communication
- Providing mechanisms for knowledge interaction / exchange and cooperation